FINAL REPORT

Attach a report of educational activities conducted in observance of National Coin Week 1983. Supplement your report with documentation, such as press clippings, letters of acknowledgement, programs, bulletins and photographs. The quality of your presentation and documentation will be considered when reports are chosen for publication in THE NUMISMATIST. Large, elaborate reports are discouraged, but reports in scrapbook form are quite suitable and should be considered.

New ANA members recruited during your National Coin Week campaign should be listed on the reverse of this form.

CERTIFICATES OF PARTICIPATION

Certificates will be provided to clubs and individuals submitting FINAL REPORTS and to the individuals and organizations designated by them. Your report should include a printed or typewritten list of club members, institutions and other individuals whose support contributed significantly to the success of your local National Coin Week campaign. Certificates will be sent to the above address for distribution.

All FINAL REPORTS should be sent First Class Mail, postmarked on or before May 25, 1984, to

A Foundation for Friendship

This is a report of the Utah Numismatic society and the Richard Blaylock family Coin week activities,

Our activities began with Bob Brundege and Bob Campbell visiting with Govenor Scott Mathson. they got the Govenor to sign a proclimation declairing April 15 to 21 as Coin Week. All U.N.S. members received Coin Week badges at our April meeting.

Next Aloma Blaylock gave numismatic talks to second and third grade students at Park View Elementry accompanied by slids and display. the display was taken to Marlon Hills third grades also. students at both schools were very interested.

The U.N.S. sponsored an Open House on April 21 at the Weber County Library where club members talked with people about coins and showed the ANA film "The Granit Lady" and a slid show "Coins and Cureney of Colonial America." During the Week of April 15-21 the Library had a display of numismatic books donated by Ogden Coin Club and privite individuals to the Library. Posters were also displayed describing Coin Week purposes at this time.

the Northern Utah Coin Show, sponsored by Ogden Coin Club was held April 20, 21, 22
